

Having read the source material for this Project, what do you think this book is fundamentally about?

Do not summarise its contents. Identify the central intellectual concern you believe holds the book together, and explain what leads you to that interpretation.